Singing On the Steps

IT IS the custom of the students of the University of Montana to gather every little while upon the steps of University Hall about seven fifteen in the evening to sing songs, tell stories and enjoy a general good time. Promptly as the clock above strikes eight, the "singing on the steps" closes. No matter what is taking place a hush falls over those present, all rise to their feet and wait until the clock finishes tolling the hour, and then retire from the building in silence.
